

Chisholm '72: Unbought and Unbossed

Saturday, October 18, 3–6 p.m.

The 1972 presidential race set precedents that still stand today. On the eve of what many are calling a historic presidential election, learn more about a woman who shook up the world as she became “the candidate of the people”

Film Screening and Discussion with historians/authors Joy James and Robin D.G. Kelley

@ USC Taper Hall of Humanities-Room 101
(Vermont/Jefferson), Los Angeles, CA 90089

This program supported by the American Studies Program at USC

Free admission • Donations welcome

For more info:
www.socallib.org
(323) 759-6063

The People's Library

Making Our Own Histories