

Arrested Dreams: Criminalizing a Generation of Youth

Thursday, October 16, 7–9 p.m.

Film Screening and Discussion of: Juvies

As we are about to vote on Prop. 6—which will send thousands of young people through the adult court system—don't miss this film about the realities of sentencing children as adults through the stories of 12 L.A. youth who are essentially facing life in prison with Bobby Seale, co-founder and chairman of the Black Panther Party; Noe Orgaz from Youth Justice Coalition; and Darlene Chavarria from Street Poets, Inc.

@ USC Taper Hall of Humanities-Room 101
(Hoover/Jefferson), Los Angeles, CA 90089

This program supported by a grant from The James Irvine Foundation
& by the American Studies Program at USC

Free admission • Donations welcome

For more info:
www.socallib.org
(323) 759-6063

The People's Library
Making Our Own Histories